Who We Are

The Cooper Charitable Foundation provides Housing Stability Grants to help people secure stable housing or prevent them from losing their housing. The Foundation was created by John Cooper, the founder and CEO of Cooper Tacía General Contracting, in honor of his grandmother, Mozelle, who provided him with love and stability during a chaotic and sometimes violent childhood. This is his way of recognizing her – and helping others.

What We Do

We help people secure housing through our Housing Stability Grant program. Grants have primarily supported working individuals who can afford the monthly rent but cannot afford move-in costs such as the security deposit, and first and last month's rent. We also award grants to people facing temporary hardship, preventing them from losing their housing.

Our Partners

Rather than duplicating the efforts of nonprofits addressing homelessness, we collaborate with them to help people in need. None of what we do at the Foundation would be possible without their dedication and trust. We are proud to partner with:

Oak City Cares | The Women's Center of Wake County | Wake Tech Foundation | Healing Transitions | Family Promise of the Triangle | The Caring Place | The Lotus Campaign

Building stability. Changing lives

Why urgency matters: 1 in 3 Americans do not have savings to cover an emergency. 29% do not have $400 for an unexpected expense. Nearly 50% of women do not have an emergency fund. Our grants help working people access housing or prevent them from losing their current housing.
